

Summary

This section assesses the company's overall ESG performance.

Green Star Rating

Klarna AB has overall negative performance in sustainability.

News Summary

Klarna AB, a Swedish financial technology company, has been facing multiple issues recently. They were fined for illegal night work and have since appealed the decision. They have also been accused of breaching data protection regulations and of not providing collective agreements to their staff. These issues are indicative of a lack of proper sustainability practices, which can have negative effects on the company's reputation and future success.

ESG Performance Assessment

This section assesses the company's ESG performance as reported in the media.

Environmental Sustainability

Klarna AB has overall neutral performance in environmental sustainability. The trend based on the last 12 months is negative.

Social Sustainability

Klarna AB has overall negative performance in social sustainability. The trend based on the last 12 months is negative.

Governance Sustainability

Klarna AB has overall negative performance in governance sustainability. The trend based on the last 12 months is negative.

Overall ESG Performance

Klarna AB has overall negative performance in overall sustainability. The trend based on the last 12 months is negative.

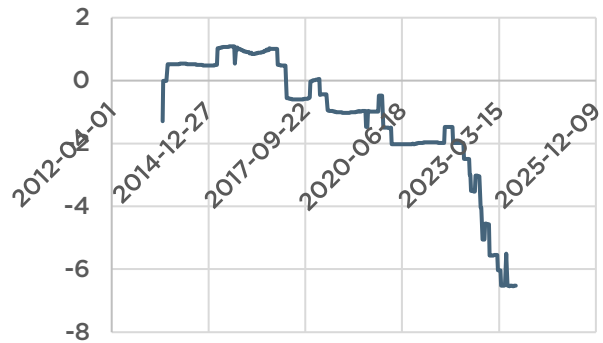

ESG Controversy Assessment

This section shows an overview of the company's recent and historical controversies.

Recent Controversies

The company had no negative events during the last 12 months.

Historical Controversies

Top ESG News

Klarna tvingas betala vite för olovligt nattarbete

Dagens Arena

2023-04-13

Klarna överklagar böter: Tar nattarbetsfrågan till domstol

Voister

2023-06-12

Klarna överklagar böter för nattarbete

Finansliv

2023-05-31

Klarna Bank AB har överträtt dataskyddsförordningen men ...

Sveriges Domstolar

2023-04-14

Anställda på Klarna kräver kollektivavtal

Svenska Dagbladet

2023-03-28

Jättetappet för Danmarks rikaste efter Klarna-krisen

Expressen

2023-03-03